VALENTINE-DAINES

SUMMER DAYS

The beautiful new collection from Sherree Valentine-Daines takes us from afternoons in flower-filled meadows to the lawns of Ascot in the company of exquisitely dressed socialites and enchanting children. Despite the difference in subject, what each piece shares is a sense of a genuinely memorable day that we are being invited to enjoy as it recalls some of our own happiest memories.

“In a way my paintings represent a diary of happy days and wonderful memories that I hope others can relate to and enjoy.”

Inspirational and beautifully composed and executed, this collection demonstrates why Sherree has been officially voted the UK's leading modern Impressionist. Once again, her expert handling of contrasting colours and textures has given these paintings an arresting authenticity, while her impressionistic approach creates a strong yet subtle sense of movement and vitality. She is simply exceptional, and after more than 30 years as a highly successful artist she has a formidable reputation both at home and abroad.

Sherree has received commissions from a host of prestigious clients including Champagne Bollinger, the BBC, and the Royal Household, for whom she painted a scene showing the Queen and the late Duke of Edinburgh at the Royal Windsor Horse Show as their 90th birthday gift to her Majesty. Her portraits include Dame Vera Lynn (100th birthday portrait), Sebastian Coe and Joanna Lumley.
